

Cashier Held In $35,000 Conversion

(By Associated Press)
LIMA, Nov. 26.—Carence Gordon, 52-year-old former bank cashier charged with embezzling more than $35,000 from the Home Banking Co. at nearby St. Marys, was under police guard today in Lima Memorial hospital, recovering from automobile accident injuries which the FBI said led to his arrest.

N. T. O'Connor of Cleveland's Federal Bureau of Investigation said Maze would be arraigned on embezzlement charges before the U. S. commissioner at Toledo as soon as he is released from the hospital.

The FBI agent, announcing Maze's arrest Saturday, said he is charged with taking $20,000 in cash from the bank, converting it to his own use and falsifying records to conceal his actions. O'Connor said falsification of Maze's records dates back as far as Nov. 15, 1942, and added that the FBI and officials of the Federal Reserve system and the St. Marys bank are attempting "to determine the exact amount of... defalcation." More than $35,000 in money, bonds, property and jewelry already has been recovered, O'Connor said.

O'Connor said Maze was able to conceal the embezzlement "until he had the misfortune of being injured and was thus unable to work." Maze was hospitalized with a fractured knee-cap received in an automobile accident at Cincinnati Nov. 10, O'Connor reported, and shortly afterwards telephoned the bank and announced he was short in his accounts.

You may not get much of a kick out of this picture now, but you can file the memory of it away for next summer. But it's pleasant assurance that you'll be more comfortable when July's sun starts to get you down. Postwar electric fans, promised in plenty of quantity by summer, were snapped at GE's Bridgeport, Conn., plant.

Boyle's COLUMN

By HAL BOYLE
SHANGHAI—Leaves from a correspondent's notebook:
In Shanghai the busiest traffic crossroads seem to be hotel corridors—particularly if you are a tourist.

Irvin S. Cobb's celebrated goldfish had more privacy than do guests in downtown Shanghai hotels. You register and ride up to your room with half a dozen Chinese bellhops led by a character known as the "number one boy" who acts as cheerleader and financial liaison man for the others. You pay him off and stretch out on your bed to rest.

You suddenly see in the doorway a ghostly apparition in a once-white smock who says, "me room boy." He will bring up your meals or carry out special missions. He has at least one and usually more assistants.

Before you can shoe them out they start shining your shoes, opening and closing windows, and slapping towels around as if the bathroom had been attacked by a horde of mosquitoes. You finally buy them off and they leave saying, "what you want—me get."

There are four push buttons on the bedside table. The red one summons the waiter, the green one the boy, the amber one the valet and the blue one your "personal servant."

There are only four now because of the war and the resulting terrific "bopower shortage."

No sooner do you sweep the room boys out than in rush a series of peepers.

They undo a silk rag bundle and riches of the Orient spill out on your bed—anything from Japanese peepers.

Save Money By Mixing Cough Syrup at Home

It's So Easy! Needs No Cooking. Gives Very Quick Relief.
Even if you're not interested in saving good money, you surely want a really effective relief for coughs due to colds. So try mixing it yourself in your kitchen, and be ready for a surprise.

It's so easy to mix, a child could do it. Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking is needed. Or use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (obtained from any druggist) into a pint bottle.

Then fill up with your syrup. This makes a pint—about four times as much for your money. It tastes good—children really like it. It lasts a family a long time, and never spoils. But what you'll like most is the way it takes right hold of a cough. It loosens the phlegm, soothes irritation, and helps clear the air passages. Eases soreness. Let's you sleep. You'll say you've never seen its superior. Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for its quick action on throat and bronchial irritations. Try it, and if you're not really delighted your money will be refunded.

TRICKS WITH A SCARF CHANGE STYLE OF CHAPEAUX

Do you want a bonnet cloche, an open calot, a halo, a tower turban or a side beret? Then the answer is "tricktop," designed by Glendex which is a complete millinery wardrobe in one scarf hat. Just pull your favorite scarf through the loops of this versatile headpiece, give it a twist and a turn, and you have any one of the new fall silhouettes. The tower turban, top left, can be made without difficulty. Outline your face with the narrow part of the flat head-band and tie your printed scarf over or under your hair. The cuff turban, below, is made in the reverse way, by centering the widest part of the scarf in the back. Tie the scarf in a braided bow over the hairline in front and turn the back-trim into a cuff which holds in your curls. A side beret, right, is quickly draped by outlining the face with the felt below the tabs and smoothing one side high, the other forward and down, with the palsy scarf tied in a bow in the back.

Questions and Answers On Problems of the Servicemen

WASHINGTON—Here are some general questions from veterans and their relatives:

Q. My husband was 24 years old when he went into the Army in 1941. Now he is 28 and still has two more years of college before he can get his degree. That will make him 30 or 31 years old before he can start looking for a job. Is there any provision for speeding up his education or getting a shorter course for him?

A. It is possible that some of the training he had while in the Army would give him additional credit toward graduation. Many colleges now are considering a speed-up set of courses for veterans.

Q. Would it be possible for me to go to school for a year before claiming my reinstatement rights to the job I had before I was drafted?

A. No. You have to apply for reinstatement within 90 days of your discharge from the service.

Q. Is it true that the government will give an American flag to the family of a dead veteran, for draping over his casket?

A. Yes. Application must be made to postmasters at any county seat post office or any other post office designated by the Veterans Administration, or any field office of the Veterans Administration. The flag shall be given to the next of kin after burial.

Q. How much money does a veteran get from the government while he is getting vocational rehabilitation?

A. During the training period and for two months after employment is determined, a single person receives pension at the rate of $80 a month, a married person $90 a month with $5 a month for each dependent child and an additional allowance of $10 a month for each dependent parent.

Alaskan Farmers Open Northern "Milk Run"

ANCHORAGE, Alaska—“Dreamers” who founded the Matanuska valley farm project in Alaska back in the depression years of the 20's would be justly proud of the new venture of that experiment.

A “milk run” from the valley, near Anchorage, delivered 180 quarts of fresh milk and several hundred pounds of fresh vegetables last month to Nome and other northward points, according to an announcement from the Matanuska valley farmers' cooperative association.

The project, founded in 1935 with a mass migration of farmers from Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, is now an established farm country with some 200 families.

Taking advantage of expanded airline service in the territory, the farmers have branched beyond nearby markets and established the northern “milk run,” as well as shipping fresh vegetables to the States.

The carp, despised by many anglers, is one of the most intelligent of all fish.

A Salem Man Felt Like Swollen Balloon; Full Of Stomach Gas

Recently, a Salem man stated that he used to feel like a swollen balloon after every meal. He would bloat full of gas and spit up acidulous liquids for hours after eating. Was terribly constipated. This man is one of the hundreds in this vicinity who now praise ERB-HELP. He states he was amazed at the results when he took this medicine. Now he eats what he wants without gas or bloating, and bowels are regular for the first time in years. He feels like a new man.

ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. Don't go on suffering! Get ERB-HELP. Lease Drug Stores.

In Gratitude

Painted by Harold Anderson—Courtesy of American Oil Company

THE cheers die away and ticker-tape is gone from the streets. But the grateful heart knows that the time to say thanks is just beginning. It knows Victory wasn't given to us. It was paid for with the hearts, the hopes and the lives of our boys.

These we can never pay back. But we can put a down-payment on the future they anguished for. We can invest in the tomorrows of those who come home. We can pay for the care of the hundreds of thousands now fighting their grimmest battles in service hospitals. We can give our government the means of taking care of those who took care of our freedom.

If we don't show our gratitude now by making the Victory Loan the greatest bond drive success, we may be doing ourselves, as well as our veterans, a harm as grievous as defeat. If we run hog-wild with our money now, and unloose inflation on the land, the word "Victory" will mock us to the end of our days.

Americans know this. We'll need no whooping or parades to lure us to bond windows. We won't need movie-star kisses or pleas from empty-sleeved heroes. But, in gratitude and with humble thanks to those who brought us peace, we'll use our money to buy a bright future for our boys and for ourselves.

The Victory Loan

—in gratitude to our fighting men and women for a debt we can never repay

The World Today

purse. Sir Stafford Cripps, Chairman of the board of trade, has preached "austerity" so vigorously to the public that they call him Sir Austerity Cripps—a bit of humor which has a rather harsh connotation for the man in the street who has patches on his trousers.

Now Don't get the wrong impression from what I've said. England is dog-tired, and more than a little disappointed because peace hasn't brought relief from the privations of war—but John Bull hasn't lost his fighting spirit. The situation as we see it here today reminds me of an incident I encountered in the first World war when I was attached to British general headquarters in France as war correspondent.

The 51st British division—I'm writing from memory—was subjected to fierce attack by 10 German divisions. The 51st fought doggedly, pulling back foot by foot but not giving much ground. This went on for seven days and seven nights until the exhausted Tommies would drop in their tracks and fall asleep instantly when there was the slightest lull in the fighting. At the end of the week the Germans sent over a little balloon which had attached to it a note written in English, presumably by an officer who had lived in Britain. It read: "Good old 51st, still sticking it. Cheerio."

So it is with England today. It's mighty tired—but still sticking it.

(By United Press)
PARIS.—The Latin Quarter, since the 13th century a Bohemian center for students from all over the world, is today a headache for the French government.

Thousands of shabby students, many of them returned from the concentration camps of Dachau and Buchenwald, are tramping the streets in the shadow of the University of Paris in a difficult search for rooms and books.

The narrow hotels which jam the winding streets of the Latin Quarter have discovered they can make more money from renting their rooms to passing couples. So the Ministry of Education has had to take over hotels requisitioned for the prisoners of war who returned last spring. Many of them are miles from the university.

Other hotels in the Latin Quarter are occupied by the American Red Cross or Allied armies.

"We may have to put up barracks for the students," a harassed official said.

College Enrollment Up

The University of Paris has a bigger enrollment this year than at any time since 1930. But the cost of living for students has gone up four or five times. There is a great shortage of books owing to the lack of paper. Food is hard to get. The ministry, however, has set up canteens where for a few francs students can receive a slender meal, but they expect to freeze during the winter.

The cafes on the sloping side streets around the Pantheon, where Voltaire and Zola are buried, are half empty.

"A 'demi' is four times what it cost before the war and there are not any aperitifs or good wine," said a 27-year-old student who is beginning his university career over again after five years as a prisoner of war.

Typical of the changed atmosphere in what was once the gayest part of Paris is a big poster near the famous Clun Museum, which says, "Students! Think of your comrades in sanitariums and contribute to the National Students Sanitarium Society." Many young Frenchmen have returned from Germany too ill to study.

The Sorbonne receives an average of 100 letters weekly from Americans who want to come here to study. But because of the difficulty of food and lodging, none is expected when the Sorbonne opens in November. However, several hundred American soldiers will follow its courses.

Scientists estimate that 1,000,000 tons of ragweed pollen fall in the United States annually.

The average turkey lays 40 to 60 eggs a year.
